XLVI CONFERENCE OF POLISH MUSEUMS, ARCHIVES AND LIBRARIES IN THE WEST

Concludes at the Polish Museum of America

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chicago, IL – October 8, 2024

The Polish Museum of America (PMA) proudly hosted the 46th Conference of Polish Museums, Archives, and Libraries in the West (MAB) from September 24–28, 2024. The event brought together representatives from key Polish cultural institutions across Europe, North and South America, for insightful discussions and cultural exchanges centered on the theme: “National Anniversaries in the Collections of MAB Institutions.”

The conference opened with a welcoming dinner on September 24 at the Polish Roman Catholic Union of America (PRCUA) social hall, where guests were greeted by James Robaczewski, President of PRCUA and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the PMA; Richard Owsiany, President of the PMA; and PMA Managing Director Małgorzata Kot. Attendees explored the museum’s exhibitions, including the Great Hall, the Ignacy Jan Paderewski Room, and the Art Gallery.

September 25, 2024 (Wednesday)

On September 25, the conference continued with closed sessions focusing on internal MAB matters, followed by a visit to the historic Holy Trinity Church for a solemn Holy Mass. A special museum tour was arranged for honorary guests, including a delegation from the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage of the Republic of Poland, the Consulate of the Republic of Poland in Chicago, and representatives of various state institutions and non-governmental organizations.

The evening featured the official opening of the conference, led by Richard Owsiany, with speeches by James Robaczewski, Micheline Jaminski, Treasurer of the Polish American Congress, as well as Agata Grochowska, Vice Consul and Head of the Department of Polish American Community, Communication and Public Diplomacy at the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland in Chicago; Julia Konopka-Żołnierczuk from the National Library of Poland; Teresa Ackermann from the Kościuszko Museum in Solothurn; Jolanta Miśkowiec, Director of the Department of the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage, who also read a special letter from Minister of Culture and National Heritage Hanna Wróblewska; Sylwia Tryc, Acting Director of the National Institute of Polish Cultural Heritage Abroad – POLONIKA; and Mateusz Szpytma, Deputy President of the Institute of National Remembrance. The day concluded with a screening of the film “Polish Cathedrals” by Magdalena Gutowska, accompanied by live music performed by Jazz Trio: Sławek Bielawiec, Krzysztof Pabian, and Dave Zieliński. Their performance was generously sponsored by the Polish & Slavic Federal Credit Union.

Following these presentations, participants engaged in discussions with representatives from the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage, the National Library, the Archive of the Institute of National Remembrance, and National Institute of Polish Cultural Heritage Abroad – POLONIKA.

In the afternoon, participants embarked on an enriching tour of Chicago, visiting historic sites significant to the Polish community. The tour started at the Church of St. Stanislaus Kostka, the oldest Polish church in Chicago, followed by a visit to the former seat of the Polish National Alliance. Other key stops included the Polish Triangle, in the area known as the Polish Downtown, the Chopin Theater, and the former headquarters of the Polish Women’s Alliance. The group also visited Humboldt Park, a gathering place for Polonia events for decades, where Ignacy Paderewski spoke at a manifestation on Poland gaining independence. A wonderful stop on the tour was the history-filled Church of St. John Cantius, where Brother Joshua guided the group, impressing visitors with his knowledge and dedication. The group also learned many interesting facts from the event coordinators, Małgorzata Kot and Richard Owsiany. A drive through the streets of Chicago, along Michigan Avenue with views of the Congress Hotel where Paderewski stayed when visiting Chicago, included a longer stop on Solidarity Drive, where the guests were joined by the knowledgeable and enthusiastic Daniel Pogorzelski. Participants admired the city’s skyline, strolled past the monuments of Kościuszko and Copernicus, and took a group photo while contemplating the meaningful sculpture, “Agora” by Magdalena Abakanowicz, creating lasting memories of this beautiful city and the Polish presence within it.

The day ended with a formal dinner hosted by Vice Consul Agata Grochowska at the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland, featuring a presentation by Marek Żebrowski of the Polish Music Center at USC Thornton Los Angeles, CA, on the works of Henryk Wars and Feliks Konarski. Guests concluded the evening by singing along to hits by these iconic artists.

September 27, 2024 (Friday) – Closing Sessions

The final day of the conference included closed sessions, during which participants discussed future resolutions for MAB and finalized plans for upcoming conferences. The event concluded with a farewell cruise along Chicago’s river and lake, offering a picturesque backdrop for participants to reflect on the meaningful exchanges and new connections formed throughout the conference. This memorable cruise was generously sponsored by PRCUA, PMA, Idea Furniture, as well as PMA Board members Betty Uzarowicz, Vicki Granacki, and Stephen Kusmierczak.
